PSYCHOLOGY 485 HONORS CONTRACT

PSYC 485: Directed Studies. Credit 0-3. Directed readings or research problems in selected areas designed to supplement existing course offerings. Prerequisite: Approval of Instructor.

Student’s name_________________________________________ UIN_________________

Major __________________________________________________________________________

Phone #________________________________________________ email________________________

Semester ____________ Supervising Faculty (please print) ______________________________

Credit Hours ____________ (0-3 hours)

Briefly state the topic area to be covered: ____________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

What activities are required by the student (e.g., library research, experimentation, etc.)? List readings, methodologies, and duties to be fulfilled (as applicable).

________________________________________________________________________________

Specify additional determinants of the student’s a grade (S/U only). ______________________

________________________________________________________________________________

Supervising faculty signature ________________________________

_______________ (date)

Graduate student signature ________________________________

_______________ (date)

Student signature _______________________________________

_______________ (date)

Student must take completed form to RM 244 between 8am and noon during OPEN REGISTRATION to be forced into this course. Completion of this form does NOT register you for the course.