

PSYCHOLOGY 491 CONTRACT

PSYC 491: Research. Credit 0-3. Research conducted under the supervision of a chosen faculty member in the department of psychology; involves discussion and presentation of student research projects. Prerequisites: PSYC 484 or PSYC 485; Approval of instructor.

Student's name _____ UIN _____

Major _____

Phone # _____ email _____

Semester _____ Supervising Faculty (please print) _____

Credit Hours _____ (0-3 hours)

NOTE: If student is an Undergraduate Research Scholar or Fellow, this course MAY be taken as a 2 hour credit to be taken simultaneously with the 1-hour PSYC 491-900 (Writing Workshop) provided by the Honors Office. PSYC 491-900 provides writing intensive credit for Scholars and Fellows.

Briefly state the topic area to be covered: _____

What research-related activities are required by the student?

The student must produce a 2000-word-minimum paper describing the research in which they participate. Specify additional determinants of the student's a grade. _____

Supervising faculty signature _____

_____ (date)

Graduate student signature _____

_____ (date)

Student signature _____

_____ (date)

STUDENT must take completed form to Milner Room 205 between 8am and noon DURING OPEN REGISTRATION to be forced into this course. Completion of this form does NOT register you for the course.